MEDC Fall Conference
October 25, 2012

Funded in part through a cooperative agreement with the U.S. Small Business Administration.
Importance of Exporting

- Helps companies to increase sales and profit
- Reduces their dependence on the domestic market
- Stabilizes seasonal sales fluctuations
- Nearly 96 percent of consumers live outside the U.S.
- Two-thirds of the world’s purchasing power resides outside the U.S.
- Go to where the customers are!
Missouri’s Explosive Export Growth

$14.1 billion
Is a Small Business Near You Export Ready?

- Have they received any unsolicited inquiries from foreign firms?
- Are domestic sales of their product doing reasonably well?
- Do they have a relatively strong share of the domestic market?
- Is their product price-competitive in the domestic market?
- Does their product compare favorably with domestic competitors in features and benefits?
- Is management committed?
Introduction to Exporting: ED Training

A core training program (Introduction to Exporting 101) to help educate economic development professional across the state gain an understanding of:

- The role International Trade plays in Economic Development
  - Why Export?
- The Value of Exporting to Missouri Businesses & the MO economy
- The Missouri International Trade Assistance Network (DED, MDA, USEAC, SBA, WTC, MOSBTDC)
  - Who is who and who does what?
- Resources for exporters in your community
Introduction to Exporting: ED Training

A core training program (Introduction to Exporting 101) to help educate economic development professional across the state gain an understanding of:

- Basic International Trade core concepts
  - Global Business Management, Global Marketing
  - Supply Chain Management, Trade Finance
- Training to be delivered face-to-face via a 2-3 hour seminar/networking session
  - Offered in 6-8 locations throughout the state
  - Locations to be centered in each of the 7 MEDC Districts
Benefits to Economic Developers

EXPORTS = Jobs & Increased Tax Revenue

- Further understanding of international trade as a competitive economic development tool
- Ability to convey the importance of international trade to business locally
- Ability to recognize when a business has untapped export potential
- Recognize the local, state and federal resources available to assist
Contact Information
Ann Pardalos, Manager
Missouri International Trade and Investment Office
301 W. High St. Ste 720
PO Box 118
Jefferson City, MO 65102
Phone: 1-573-751-4855
Email: mostep.up@ded.mo.gov

www.ded.mo.gov/mostep